The Wealth Lab, as distributed on mainstream podcast hosting websites, should not be construed as investment, legal, tax or other advice. Nothing in this podcast series is intended as a solicitation, offer, or recommendation to acquire or dispose of any investment or to engage in any other transaction, or to provide any investment, advice, or service.

You are advised to read this disclaimer carefully and seek, and rely on, your own independent professional advice tailored to your personal circumstances before considering any investment or making any investment decision. Prospective investors should carefully consider all risk factors in determining whether an investment is suitable for them. This podcast series expresses no views as to the suitability of the investments discussed herein to the individual circumstances of any recipient.

If you are considering an investment, please reach out to your usual independent financial advisor, or us, so we can tailor a bespoke solution according your personal goals and circumstances.

Past returns are not a guarantee of future performance, and investing puts capital at risk.
